Unity For Wilson to Rule at Democratic Convention.

The Democratic National Convention in St. Louis, which will convene Wednesday, June 14th, promises to be a great political love-feast, devoid of dissension.

The 1,093 delegates to the St. Louis convention and alternates, representing every state in the Union and the insular possessions across the sea, will foregather to voice the unanimous desire of Democrats everywhere that Woodrow Wilson shall lead the party in a second presidential campaign.

President Wilson's nomination for another four years in the White House will be a mere formality. The only possible contest will be over the Vice-Presidency.

John W. Wescott, Attorney General of New Jersey, who presented the name of Woodrow Wilson at the Baltimore Convention in 1912, will perform the same function at St. Louis.

The keynote address of the convention will be delivered by former Governor Martin Glynn of New York, who probably will be chosen by the National Committee for temporary chairman of the convention.

Not in the history of the existing political parties has any "key-note" had greater reason to boast of a party's accomplishments, and Governor Glynn, judging by his address at the New York State Convention, over which he presided, will make the most of the opportunity.

It has not been definitely settled who will be honored with the permanent chairmanship of the St. Louis gathering. The choice, will be made by the committee on permanent organization, but it has been hinted that Speaker Champ Clark will be chosen.

Fifteen women will sit as delegates in the democratic national convention at St. Louis and vote for the renomination of President Wilson. There may be more, but 15 members of the fair sex are listed among the state delegations now on file in the office of W. R. Hollister, acting secretary of the democratic national committee in Washington, D. C. So far as is known in Washington, this is the largest list of women ever chosen as delegates to any national convention. The women delegates follow:

Kansas—Mrs. W. A. Harris, Lawrence; Mrs. Mattie B. Hale, LaCrosse; Mrs. J. E. Dreunan, Arkansas City; Mrs. R. J. Ebban, Canton.

California—Mrs. Nora Rasmussen, San Francisco; Miss Mary E. Foy, Pasadena; Mrs. W. C. Tyler, Los Angeles; Mrs. Bird E. Hodby, El Centro.

Washington—Mrs. A. Monroe, Spokane; Mrs. M. B. Harter, Seattle; Mrs. Harrison F. Foster, Tacoma; Mrs. Elizabeth D. Christian, Spokane.

Wyoming—Mrs. T. S. Tallafro, Rock Springs; Mrs. Mary G. Bellamy, Laramie.

Arizona—Mrs. H. E. Fletcher, Hereford.

This is the richest land in Missouri and is the greatest opportunity for the man that wants to buy a farm or the man that wants to make a gift edge investment. I have been over this land several times and I am convinced that this land can not be duplicated considering the quality of soil, price and location. For further information write to me or come and see me and I will go with you and show you the land.

J. M. Hahn, who has been engaged for some time in digging a well for the Schaaf Milling Co. at St. Mary's, Mo., has now completed his job. The well is 1,930 feet deep. Mr. Hahn sent us a sample of the water which comes from the well. There is a shade of difference in the looks of this water and most well water. It has a sort of oily look and is heavier and undoubtedly contains mineral properties. It has a strong salty taste. The bottle of water is at our office for inspection by anybody who cares to.—Perryville Sun.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Farmington man is confirmed after five years.

J. P. Zolman, justice of the peace, Division St., Farmington, Mo., says: "For about a year, I was annoyed considerably by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, particularly during the night. Often when stooping over after a slight exertion, I could feel my back getting weak. I finally got Don's Kidney Pills and since using them, I have felt no sign of the trouble."

Lasting Benefit.

Over Five Years Later, Justice Zolman said: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since Don's Kidney Pills cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Justice Zolman has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

College dunces who grew tired under Tatt of hearing of the president who had been second in his class will be comforted by the investigator at Princeton who has just gone over Woodrow Wilson's record in scholarship with care. He was "sound without being brilliant." His general average for the four years was 90.3 and he stood thirty-eight in a graduating class of 106. Moreover, he slumped sadly during his senior year, making a much poorer showing than when a freshman or sophomore. In science he received his lowest ratings, and in astronomy he once had a grade of 73, which could have been much more than passing. But the Princeton investigator records also that in his senior year he was in a host of student activities, being managing editor of the Princetonian and one of the directors of the football team.—New York Evening Post.
